

Municipality Belval Parc Belval

Next to the new Esch Belval neighbourhood with its university, restaurants, offices and other leisure and activity complexes is the 10-hectare Belval Park. The park is an ideal place to take a break from the stress of working life and offers visitors the opportunity to stroll along large, flat concrete paths, admire nature and admire works of art. The benches invite you to linger. The park is characterised by its flat terrain and the fact that it is easily accessible. The park is complemented by a playground for children with disabilities, which is perfectly tailored to their needs and allows them to spend an enjoyable time in nature. At the end of the park, there is a pavilion whose theme is the Belval spring and which offers small snacks. Adjacent to this building is a public toilet for visitors to the park. The park is fully accessible to wheelchair users.
